

Commonly confused verbs

Complete the following sentences with appropriate words from given group of verbs. You don't need to change the form.

see / look / watch

Do you ..... TV a lot?

I ..... what you mean.

..... at you! You look gorgeous!

....., I don't mean to be rude but you're totally wrong!

I love to ..... puppies playing.

It's too dark – I can't ..... anything.

You ..... good in this dress.

..... you tomorrow at 9!

They never ..... at each other when they argue.

Did you ..... news last night.

We never ..... each other anymore – we simply don't have time.

Did you ..... Dana yesterday? She's got a new haircut.

stay / leave

..... here. I'll be back in a couple of minutes.

Please, ..... the light on – I'm afraid of darkness.

You look unwell – you should ..... at home.

Where did she ..... her car?

..... me alone!

We would like to ..... in Prague for 4 nights.

hear / listen

Hello, can you ..... me ?

....., can we postpone our meeting a bit – I'm quite busy right now.

We always ..... to this radio.

So, I ..... you've just returned from a long trip.ok

Answer sheet

see / look / watch

Do you watch TV a lot ?

Can I see what you mean.

Look at you! You look gorgeous!

Look, I don't mean to be rude but you're totally wrong!

I love to watch puppies playing.

It's too dark – I can't see anything.

You look good in this dress.

See you tomorrow at 9!

They never look at each other when they argue.

Did you watch news last night.

We never see each other anymore – we simply don't have time.

Did you see Dana yesterday? She's got a new haircut.

Stay / leave

Stay here. I'll be back in a couple of minutes.

Please, leave the light on – I'm afraid of darkness.

You look unwell – you should stay at home.

Where did she leave her car?

Leave me alone!

We would like to stay in Prague for 4 nights.

hear / listen

Hello, can you hear me ?

Listen, can we postpone our meeting a bit – I'm quite busy right now.

We always listen to this radio.

So, I hear you've just returned from a long trip