

Present Perfect

with just, yet and already

Complete the sentences with Present Perfect of the verbs in brackets.

Remember to put just, yet and already in the right place.

Example:

He _____ the cat _____. (not feed/yet)

He hasn't fed the cat yet.

1. I _____ two cups of coffee this morning.
(have/already)
2. Steve _____ to work. (come/just)
3. _____ you _____ the latest Tarantino movie _____?
(see/yet)
4. She _____ to her boss about the pay rise _____.
(not speak/yet)
5. We _____ the information about changes in our company.
(receive/just)
6. Wait for me! I _____ eating _____. (finish/yet)
7. Dan _____ there twice - he can show us around.
(be/already)
8. Don't touch it. I _____ that bench. (paint/just)
9. I'm afraid Lena isn't coming to the party. She _____ me and said that her daughter got sick. (call/ just)
10. Michael, _____ you _____ Bob _____? (meet/yet)
11. Not for me thanks, I _____ three glasses of wine.
(drink/ already)
12. _____ you _____ the latest news _____? Paul and Kasia are getting married! (hear/yet)
13. Can you get me a band aid? I _____ myself. (cut/just)
14. Are we leaving now? I need more time. I _____ dressed
_____.! (not get/yet)
15. I'm broke - my friend _____ me back the money I lent him _____. (not pay/yet)

Answer key

1. I have already had two cups of coffee this morning.
2. Steve has just come to work. (come/just)
3. Have you seen the latest Tarantino movie yet?
4. She hasn't spoken to her boss about the pay rise yet .
5. We have just received the information about changes in our company.
6. Wait for me! I haven't finished eating yet.
7. Dan has already been there twice – he can show us around.
8. Don't touch it. I have just painted that bench.
9. I'm afraid Lena isn't coming to the party. She has just called me and said that her daughter got sick.
10. Michael, have you met Bob yet?
11. Not for me thanks, I have already drunk three glasses of wine.
12. Have you heard the latest news yet? Paul and Kasia are getting married!
13. Can you get me a band aid? I have just cut myself.
14. Are we leaving now? I need more time. I haven't got dressed yet! (not get/yet)
15. I'm broke – my friend hasn't paid me back the money I lent him yet. (pay/yet)